What is the Midcoast Maine Leadership Institute (MMLI)? It is a highly acclaimed, 12-week program especially designed to mentor tomorrow's Midcoast Maine business and community leaders. MMLI is an intensive, group-based professional training program that requires 100% commitment from its participants. In return MMLI gives its alumni life-long skills to become more effective leaders and community partners.

MMLI consistently earns rave reviews from its graduates. It is broad in scope, is conducted locally, and facilitator Steve Pecukonis (HRD Associates) is the professional that guides participants through a practical, focused curriculum. He has designed and facilitated quality leadership programs across the State of Maine for more than 20 years.

What does a participant receive? Over 50 hours of professionally led training; five Continuing Education Units (if applicable), a network and friendships with a group of like-minded residents from Freeport to Damariscotta.

What's the schedule? All Tuesday evening classes are 6 – 9 p.m. All day sessions are Tuesdays 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. (see separate sheet for 2009 schedule.)
